Key Achievements

Catherine Song has 10 years of experience in China's tax sector, holding three qualifications in China: Qualified Chinese Lawyer, Certified Public Accountant (CPA), and Certified Tax Agent (CTA).

In tax consulting and planning, Catherine provides tax guidance for various transactions, including outbound investments, cross-border M&As, establishment or dismantling of red-chip structures, privatizations, and pre-IPO restructurings (domestic and offshore), and employee equity incentive plans. In tax dispute resolution, She has successfully represented clients in numerous complex tax investigations, tax inspections, anti-avoidance inquiries, transfer pricing adjustments, tax administrative reconsideration/litigation, and tax-related civil cases, consistently securing favorable outcomes through professional communication and strategic responses. In tax compliance, she assists clients in establishing and enhancing compliance systems, and provides with comprehensive tax compliance advice. With focus on tax optimization and risk prevention, she offered integrated legal and tax services for high-net-worth individuals across multiple jurisdictions and timelines. Catherine has served clients from a broad range of industries, including technology, finance, manufacturing, internet, pharmaceuticals, culture & entertainment, real estate, etc.
