

Meng Lan

Partner

+86 21 6289 8808
lanmeng@anlilaw.com

Location:

Language:
Chinese, English

Qualification:
China Legal Professional
Qualification Certificate,
Chinese Lawyer
Practicing Certificate

Work Experience

- 2025-Present | Anli Partners (Shanghai) | Partner
- 2023-2025 | King & Wood Mallesons, Shanghai Office | Partner
- 2016-2023 | King & Wood Mallesons, Shanghai Office | Lawyer

Education

- Leiden University (Netherlands) | LL.M. in International Tax Law
- Xiamen University | Master of Law in Economic Law
- Xiamen University | Bachelor of Laws

Areas

Tax Dispute Resolution, Tax Compliance, Tax Planning, International Taxation & Transfer Pricing

Key Achievements

Mona Lan has 10 years of experience in China's tax sector, focusing her practice on tax dispute resolution, tax compliance and planning, tax advisory, and private wealth tax planning.

In tax dispute resolution, Mona represents clients in tax-related investigations, tax administrative review and tax-related arbitration/litigation. Mona is experienced in dealing with complicated cases for clients and strives for the best results. In tax compliance and tax planning, Mona provides tax compliance and optimization suggestions for a wide array of transactions, so as to help enterprises better apply preferential tax policies. Mona is good at providing various practical business solutions for enterprises. In addition, Mona also assist clients to identify tax risks and establish/enhance compliance system. Mona also has extensive experience in tax planning in private wealth area, including tax planning, asset structure and internationalization planning for family members/family businesses.

Personal Honor

- 2026: Awarded as "Up and Coming" by Chambers Asia Pacific
- 2024: Recognized as a "Recommended Lawyer" in Tax area (PRC) by the internationally renowned legal rating guide The Legal 500.
- 2025: Awarded as one of the "Lexpress Luminary Lawyers 20:Taxation"